An independent non-profit organization founded in 1844 that advocates for a more humane and effective criminal justice system and a more just and equitable society. The CA's Juvenile Justice Project (JJP) works to reduce youth detention and incarceration, to transform the youth justice system from a punitive model into one grounded in positive youth development principles and to support and empower young people who come in contact with the youth justice system. JJP also coordinates the Juvenile Justice Coalition—a statewide alliance of youth justice and child welfare advocates—that supports and informs JJP’s advocacy agenda. The Coalition has an LGBTQ Work Group, which advocates for the needs of LGBTQ youth in the justice system. JJP also coordinates Safe Passages—a training program that provides a safe space for LGBTQ youth to develop the skills to join in youth justice reform efforts.

Teen SENSE is a multidisciplinary initiative that works to secure the right of youth in state custody to comprehensive, LGBTQ-inclusive sexual health care and sexual health literacy programs. This includes ensuring that staff of foster care, detention, and other government-operated and -regulated youth facilities are equipped to understand and protect all youth in their care, regardless of sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression. The Youth Advocacy Corps, a related initiative of Teen SENSE, provides an opportunity for young people from across the country to develop competence and real-world experience in sexual health advocacy. Through the Youth Advocacy Corps, young people learn about issues related to sexual health and the law, and develop the skills necessary to become effective advocates through contact with policymakers at the local, state and federal level.

Endeavors to provide safe space for all persons – especially those who have been wounded by oppressive religion. We invite all persons to join us as we share and create an environment where persons are free to live their individual truth. We will reject any misguided messages of self-hatred, intolerance, or prejudice that fail to acknowledge that all individuals are fearfully and wonderfully made in the likeness and image of God. We will intentionally resist the desire to tell individuals what and how to think. We will seek to provide individuals with the tools to think for themselves.

Harvey Milk High School (HMHS) is a small, transfer high school seeking applicants who are ready to take full ownership of their learning and who are motivated and committed to successfully completing their high school education. HMHS provides all students with a safe, supportive, and engaging educational environment with the support of our partnering community based organization, The Hetrick-Martin Institute (HMI). Many of our students take advantage of the after-school program and services provided by HMI, an organization with over a 25-year history of working with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning, at-risk, and straight youth. HMI's after-school programs include experiences in the fine and performing arts, health, general skills strengthening, counseling, and socialization, among others. Harvey Milk High School seeks transfer applicants who are a minimum age of 16 years old and have between 11 and 13 credits with 1 – 2 Regents; 17 years old and have between 16 and 19 credits with 3 or more Regents; 18 years old and have between 22 and 25 credits with 3 or more Regents. We consider all applicants on a case-by-case basis. As we are a rolling admissions school, applications will be accepted throughout the year; however, we strongly encourage applications before the beginning of each term.

HEAT is the only program of its kind in Brooklyn, New York to offer comprehensive medical and mental health care, supportive services, and access to clinical research for HIV+ and at-risk youth, aged 13 to 24. HEAT provides age and developmentally appropriate, culturally competent HIV care for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender, Black and Latino youth. A community-based program of the SUNY Downstate Medical Center, HEAT provides services at University Hospital of Brooklyn, located in one of the highest HIV/AIDS - prevalence areas in New York City. University Hospital of Brooklyn is located at 470 Clarkson Avenue, easily reachable by the #2 or #5 train to Winthrop Street or B44, B35 or B12 buses. Our full-service clinic embraces a philosophy of "one-stop shopping," where all HIV care is provided by an interdisciplinary team, eliminating the barriers which youth often face when trying to access health care. HEAT's adolescent-focused model, puts the young person in the center of his/her care and involves the client in all decisions about his/her treatment.
